ANNEX A CODE OF CONDUCT AND VENUE COMPLIANCE

This annex forms an integral part of the Food Vendor Participation Agreement for WOW Peques Fest 2026. All vendors, contractors, personnel, and representatives involved in the operation of the booth must comply with the standards and principles established by the Miami-Dade County, which aim to maintain a professional, safe, and family-friendly environment for the general public attending the event.

Compliance with these guidelines is mandatory. Failure to observe them may result in warnings, suspension of operations, or immediate termination of the vendor's participation, without the right to refunds of fees or deposits.

1. Compliance with Laws, Rules, and Regulations

All vendors must operate in strict accordance with federal, state, and local laws, as well as with all applicable health, safety, operational, and Miami-Dade County regulations. Each participant is expected to exercise sound judgment and ethical behavior at all times, maintaining integrity and responsibility in their activities during the event.

2. Professional Conduct, Integrity,

Vendors must interact with the public, venue staff, organizers, and other participants in a respectful, professional, and courteous manner. Any behavior that may be interpreted as aggressive, inappropriate, disrespectful, or disruptive will not be tolerated.

Discrimination or unfair treatment based on race, religion, color, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or any other legally protected characteristic is strictly prohibited. Likewise, no verbal, physical, or visual harassment toward employees or attendees will be tolerated within the venue.

3. Workplace Safety and Permitted Behavior

Vendors must maintain their work area safe, clean, and free of hazards. Working under the influence of alcohol or drugs, as well as possessing or distributing illegal substances on-site, is strictly prohibited. Any form of violence, threats, dangerous behavior, or disturbance of the peace will result in immediate removal from the premises.

Accidents, incidents, or unsafe conditions must be reported immediately to the Organizing Committee or authorized venue staff.

4. Proper Use of Venue Property and Facilities

Vendors are responsible for the proper use of their assigned space, provided electrical equipment, venue infrastructure, and any other resources made available by the venue or the Organizing Committee. Vendors must protect venue property and avoid damage, unauthorized modifications, or misuse of the facilities.

Any damage caused by the vendor will be their sole responsibility and may result in additional charges or full/partial withholding of the cleaning deposit.

5. Appearance and Presentation of Staff

All vendor employees must maintain a neat, hygienic, and appropriate appearance for a family-oriented event. Their presentation should align with the cultural, recreational, and community nature of WOW Peques Fest 2026. The venue reserves the right to request the removal of any individual whose behavior or appearance is deemed inappropriate.

6. Disclosures and Communications

Vendors are not authorized to issue statements on behalf of the venue, the Miami-Dade County, or WOW Peques Fest 2026. All media inquiries, formal communications, or public statements regarding the event must be directed exclusively to the Organizing Committee.

7. Reporting Violations

Wow Peques Fest 2026

Any vendor who becomes aware of a violation or suspected violation of this Code of Conduct must report it immediately through the channels established by the Organizing Committee. The organization will not tolerate retaliation against those who report incidents in good faith.
