Participant Information Agreement – Wow Miami Fest 2026 (WPF)

This agreement is entered into between CM EVENTS CORP. (“CME”) and the participant named below.

The Information Booth Participant agrees to comply with the following rules:

1. The participant must provide their own equipment and setup for approval by the Wow Miami Fest 2026 Committee.
2. Participating staff members must present themselves in a neat and clean manner and maintain a positive attitude toward the public.
3. The space assigned to the participant must be left in the same condition—or better—than it was prior to setup.
4. The participant may place signage only within their designated table area and nowhere else. Signage must be provided by the participant and must be written in both English and Spanish.
5. CME reserves the right to deny participation to any participant who fails to comply with the terms and conditions of this agreement.
6. Participants are not permitted to sell materials or merchandise of any kind during the event. Only informational materials may be distributed—free of charge—to the public or to any consumers during the event.
7. The deadline to submit the registration application is July 24, 2026.

Wow Miami Fest 2026

1. Compliance with Laws, Rules, and Regulations

All vendors must operate in strict accordance with federal, state, and local laws, as well as with all applicable health, safety, operational, and Miami-Dade County regulations. Each participant is expected to exercise sound judgment and ethical behavior at all times, maintaining integrity and responsibility in their activities during the event.

2. Professional Conduct, Integrity,

Vendors must interact with the public, venue staff, organizers, and other participants in a respectful, professional, and courteous manner. Any behavior that may be interpreted as aggressive, inappropriate, disrespectful, or disruptive will not be tolerated.

Discrimination or unfair treatment based on race, religion, color, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or any other legally protected characteristic is strictly prohibited. Likewise, no verbal, physical, or visual harassment toward employees or attendees will be tolerated within the venue.

3. Workplace Safety and Permitted Behavior

Vendors must maintain their work area safe, clean, and free of hazards. Working under the influence of alcohol or drugs, as well as possessing or distributing illegal substances on-site, is strictly prohibited. Any form of violence, threats, dangerous behavior, or disturbance of the peace will result in immediate removal from the premises.

Accidents, incidents, or unsafe conditions must be reported immediately to the Organizing Committee or authorized venue staff.

Wow Miami Fest 2026

4. Proper Use of Venue Property and Facilities

Vendors are responsible for the proper use of their assigned space, provided electrical equipment, venue infrastructure, and any other resources made available by the venue or the Organizing Committee. Vendors must protect venue property and avoid damage, unauthorized modifications, or misuse of the facilities.

Any damage caused by the vendor will be their sole responsibility and may result in additional charges or full/partial withholding of the cleaning deposit.

5. Appearance and Presentation of Staff

All vendor employees must maintain a neat, hygienic, and appropriate appearance for a family-oriented event. Their presentation should align with the cultural, recreational, and community nature of WOW Miami Fest 2026. The venue reserves the right to request the removal of any individual whose behavior or appearance is deemed inappropriate.

6. Disclosures and Communications

Vendors are not authorized to issue statements on behalf of the venue, the Miami-Dade County, or WOW Miami Fest 2026. All media inquiries, formal communications, or public statements regarding the event must be directed exclusively to the Organizing Committee.

7. Reporting Violations

Wow Miami Fest 2026

Any vendor who becomes aware of a violation or suspected violation of this Code of Conduct must report it immediately through the channels established by the Organizing Committee. The organization will not tolerate retaliation against those who report incidents in good faith.

In consideration of being permitted to participate in Wow Miami Fest 2026, the Participant hereby releases, discharges, indemnifies, holds harmless, and waives all claims against CME, Miami-Dade County, Florida, the Parks and Recreation Division, and their employees, for any loss or injury of any kind arising from the operation of the Participant's booth or business.

Participant Signature Date

For additional information, please contact us at events@cmeventscorp.com prior to July 24.

Participants shall pay a participation fee (as indicated above), payable to CM EVENTS CORP., which is due at the time of registration.

APPENDIX A

CODE OF CONDUCT AND VENUE RULES COMPLIANCE

This Appendix forms an integral part of the Food Vendor Participation Agreement for WOW Miami Fest 2026. All vendors, contractors, staff, and representatives involved in the operation of the booth must comply with the standards and principles established by Miami-Dade County, which aim to maintain a professional, safe, and family-friendly environment for the general public attending the event.

Compliance with these guidelines is mandatory. Failure to comply may result in warnings, suspension of operations, or immediate termination of the vendor's participation, without entitlement to a refund of fees or deposits.
